EXPLANATORY.

EACH work in the Library, with a few exceptions, is entered twice in the following Catalogue; once under the author's name, and again under either the title or the subject. The year and place of publication are given (the latter by initials or abbreviations), and also the size of the book. The letters [n. d.], without date, and [n. t. p.], without title-page, will appear as occasion requires.

No thorough classification has been attempted; but the grouping of works relatively connected, under the headings of Agriculture, Bible, Domestic Animals, Dictionaries, Encyclopædias, Periodicals, &c., and the special designations of juvenile books, and works of fiction, will be of some advantage, it is believed, in selecting books. Works of history will be found under the countries or places to which they especially relate.

Books for reference are marked R. L.; and are not to be taken from the Library, expect by special permission.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE I. The Library shall be known as THE WAYLAND TOWN LIBRARY, and shall be kept undivided, in some suitable room or building in the central village of Wayland.

ART. II. Its officers shall be a Library Committee of not less than three persons, and a Treasurer; all to be chosen by the town annually in the month of April, by ballot.

ART. III. The Library Committee shall select and purchase books for the Library; shall appoint a Librarian, with such other agents as may be necessary, and fix their salary; provide catalogues; exercise a general control of the Library; order all necessary repairs and alterations of the room and its appurtenances; make a special examination of the books during the first week in March, and report thereon to the town in April annually.

ART. IV. The Treasurer shall receive and disburse all moneys for the Library, under orders from the Committee; shall hold in trust all funds of the Library, and exhibit an account of the same to the town in April annually.

ART. V. The Librarian shall keep the books and appurtenances of the Library in proper order; shall record the title of each book placed therein, with the date of its purchase, and also of all books or other property given to the Library, with the donor's name, and date of presentation.

He shall charge to each borrower the books delivered, with the dates of their delivery and of their return.

ART. VI. The Library shall be open for delivery and return of books every Saturday (except legal holidays), from three to five, and seven to nine, P.M., in summer; and from two to four, and six to eight, P.M., in winter; provided, that no books shall be delivered on the Saturday next preceding the first Monday in March; and provided further that the Library may be closed by order of the Committee, when deemed necessary for any special purpose.

ART. VII. Any resident in town, twelve years old and over, may take from the Library not exceeding two books at one time; and children under that age may take one book each; the parents or guardians of minors being responsible for their wards or children. Minors and strangers may be required to furnish the Librarian with a written recommendation to use the Library.

ART. VIII. The Library card of the person wishing for books, with the shelf-numbers of the books wanted written thereon, must be presented to the Librarian as the only method of obtaining books.

NOTE. — Cards to be furnished by the Librarian at one cent each.

ART. IX. New books kept from the Library more than one week, and all others kept more than four weeks at a time, will subject the borrower to a fine of six cents, per week, per volume for each week's delay in returning. Books may be re-charged once to the same person, except such as are in constant demand.

N.B. — Books are considered new until one year after the date of their purchase or presentation. The date of their presentation or purchase will be found on the label inside the cover of each book.

ART. X. All books must be returned to the Library on or before the first Monday in March annually, under penalty of twenty-five cents per volume.

ART. XI. Books kept from the Library more than three months shall be deemed lost, and must be replaced by other copies, or paid for by the borrower.

ART. XII. All penalties incurred under the above articles, and also those incurred under the State laws (see below), if remaining unpaid more than four weeks, will forfeit the Library privileges to the defaulter until settlement is made.

ART. XIII. All money accruing from fines shall be expended in the purchase of books.

ART. XIV. All expenses incurred in maintaining the Library, excepting the purchase of books, shall be paid by the town as incidental charges.

ART. XV. No persons except the Librarian, his assistants, and the Library Committee, shall be allowed to take books from the shelves.

[Extract from the Laws, Chap. 59, Acts of 1867.]

Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or other public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence.

CATALOGUE.

NOTE. — Works of Fiction are marked by an asterisk (*) before the shelf number; and Juvenile Books are denoted by the dagger mark (†).
